

Southern Rock Legends The Outlaws Announce October Concert in Connecticut

The Outlaws will bring their legendary performance style to Milford Connecticut in October for a concert at Veterans Memorial Auditorium.

MILFORD, CONNECTICUT, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Outlaws, legends of southern rock, are bringing their celebrated sound to Connecticut's Veterans Memorial Auditorium on Saturday, October 2, 2021. Tickets are on sale now at MilfordVMA.com.

The Outlaws

For more than 40 years, The Outlaws have celebrated triumphs and endured tragedies to remain one of the most influential and best-loved bands of the genre. Back with new music, new focus, and an uncompromising mission, The Outlaws are a band of brothers bound together by history, harmony, and the road. They respect their own legacy while refusing to be defined by the past – including their own.

“

This should be a great opportunity for southern rock fans to get back to live entertainment and see some true legends perform... This should be a great one.”

Baker Concerts

“Because The Outlaws had been out of the public eye for so long, it was almost like starting over,” original singer/songwriter and guitarist Henry Paul said of the band's acclaimed 2012 comeback album It's About Pride. “But because of the band's history, we're still seeing this as a new chapter. What our fans loved then is what they still love now, because we are just as good or even better than we were.”

Tickets are available now at ezEvent.com, with prices beginning as low as $40 and premium seats at the edge of the stage available for $55. Organizers are confident that the performance will run as planned with full capacity as concerts return from their long hiatus due to the coronavirus. Should a cancellation be necessary, full refunds would be granted.

“This should be a great opportunity for southern rock fans to get back to live entertainment and see some true legends perform,” says a spokesperson for Baker Concerts, which is organizing the show. “After being locked out from live entertainment for so long, we’re thrilled to see shows coming back, and this should be a great one.”

Veterans Memorial Auditorium is an intimate venue at 70 West River Street, Milford, Connecticut with a capacity of 962 assigned seats. Originally part of the Milford High School, the auditorium has undergone a face-lift to become part of the Parsons Government Center and the home of performing arts in the city.

Doors for The Outlaws on October 2, 2021 at Milford’s Veterans Memorial Auditorium open at 7 p.m. with music scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. Tickets can be purchased now at www.MilfordVMA.com .

Bryan Flanagan
Baker Concerts
+14439287331 ext.
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/534876704>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.