

Covington Law, PLLC Announces Carolyn Marshall Covington To Join Our Team

Covington Law is proud to announce that Carolyn Marshall Covington, a recognized thought leader, has joined their team as Chief Brand Strategist.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, January 29, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carolyn Marshall Covington joins the team after decades of experience consulting businesses in the beauty and fashion industries. She was diagnosed with a degenerative eye condition, which over time causes blindness. In spite of the challenges, she chose faith over fear. Carolyn was determined to stay on track. She knew exactly what she was purposed to do; trust God's help, and guidance, to courageously meet the moment.

In 2016, Carolyn founded a North Carolina non-profit. Insightful Visionaries, answering a call to empower persons with disabilities by encouraging socialization and other esteem-building opportunities. In 2019, Carolyn was honored by WRAL TV as a beacon of light in the community, and role model of strength and determination. In 2020, she was inducted into (NAWBO). NC National Association of Women Business Owners Hall of Fame.

Andrew Covington Esquire, of Covington Law, PLLC, considers his parents Carolyn and Connell Covington as mentors. His decision to invite his mother to join his leadership team was easy. "My parents modeled self-reliance as an ethos. Love was abundant in our home, but failure, without a 'try' was not an option for my older brother and me".
