Veronica Evans of Veronica Promotions and Luis Sevilla will be producing the five-event "Virtual House Music Concert Series," which will live stream on www.HMC-OnAir.com from late January through May 2021. From the comforts of your own homes, the concerts will entertain and bring the house music community together online during the Covid-19 Pandemic while raising funds for causes important to the house music community.

The concert series will launch with a marathon 12 hour, 12 DJ kick-off fundraising event. On January 31st, starting at 11 AM, we will show support for Michael Gentile and Anthony Vitale of The Funktion House in Red Hook, Brooklyn, NY. We will raise funds to keep their doors open to continue to provide DJing, production, broadcasting, and studio services to the house music community.

"We are worked up that even in these trying times, we can showcase our love for art, dance, and music through the talented artists that will perform and bring about much needed fun and memorable experiences," said Luis Sevilla.
