

"10 Ballet Dancers" New Release Picture Book by Arizona Author Amanda Malek-Ahmadi

"10 Ballet Dancers", a book for kids, shares the story of an ordinary ballet practice with a big surprise ending. Written by debut Author Amanda Malek-Ahmadi.

TOLLESON, AZ, USA, January 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Glendale, Arizona author Amanda Malek-Ahmadi has just released her first picture book for children, "10 Ballet Dancers." This charming tale, beautifully illustrated in pastel colors by New-Mexico artist Kathrine Gutkovskiy, shares the story of what starts as an ordinary day at a ballet school. The boys and girls in the class dance off the pages only to reveal a big surprise at the end of the book. This book, playfully combining dance and counting, is suitable for young children.

Ballet terms abound in this beautifully illustrated, advanced-concept counting book. . .A challenging, inventive tale that works best for young dancers.”

Kirkus Reviews

Amanda says, “Dance was my first passion. When people ask, ‘When did you start dancing?’ I respond, ‘the womb’ and giggle. I officially started dancing when I was five.”

Sharing what influenced her to be an author, Amanda says, “When I was in elementary school, we had Mister Tom share his book ‘Messy Cat’ during library time. I remember being so enthralled during the visit. And I still own my autographed copy.”

The respected review source at Kirkus says, “Ballet terms abound in this beautifully illustrated, advanced-concept counting book written by a dance teacher and debut author Malek-Ahmadi . . .A challenging, inventive tale that works best for young dancers.”
