A look around the shop showcases three main areas. The first space is the counter area. This is where general tobacco products and accessories are found. Customers must request assistance for items located behind the counter. Social distancing is requested in this area. It is also important to note that customers must be 21 or older to make purchases.

The second space is a self-serve area. Accessories like lighters, cutters, ashtrays, hookahs, and other accessories are found. Anyone working behind the counter can help customers navigate the self-serve space as well. Asking for assistance from the knowledgeable staff is encouraged.

Then, there is the humidor. This may also be called the Cigar Vault. It is well-stocked with a popular selection of premium brands. It is kept at an optimal temperature and humidity level that guarantees all products inside to be fresh. New additions to the humidors occur all the time. Visiting often is strongly encouraged.

The Greenfield Smokers Host local cigar shop offers “quality for less” and the atmosphere is casual. There is plenty of parking so customers can dash in and out. Pricing is fair, and the store is clean.
