

BEAVERTAILS OTTAWA ICE DRAGON BOAT FESTIVAL VIRTUAL EDITION ANNOUNCES 2021 PROGRAMMING

OTTAWA, ONTARIO, CANADA, January 31, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The BeaverTails Ottawa Ice Dragon Boat Festival Virtual Edition is proud to present its 2021 programming from February 5-21 on icedragonboat.ca and its social media.

That's right, the BeaverTails Ottawa Ice Dragon Boat Festival goes virtual for 2021, meaning you can access all the exciting programming in the comfort and warmth of your living room, kitchen, or home office. Be sure to check icedragonboat.ca throughout Winterlude to catch all of the performances, exhibitions and more without ever having to change out of your PJs.

For those of you that want to feel a little bite from that winter-air chill, register for Shiver 'n Giver, a brand new virtual challenge, where participants can skate, ski, snowshoe, walk or run to complete 21k over the course of Winterlude 2021.

To warm things up, the festival presents an eclectic array of performances from great Canadian acts: Moonfruits, the Chinese Canadian Children's Choir of Canada, Melo Griffith, Silent Winters, Taming Sari, Amanda Rheume, and DJ Shub.

This year the festival looks to not only engage your ears, but also your eyes with a pair of Visual Arts presentations. One comes to us from the woodshop of pilot turned artist, Bill Geno, of Pilot Projects Woodworking and a multi-artist series dubbed, "We're All in the Same Boat" which will deliver a piece from each of the four very different artistic stylings of Corinne Blouin, Emilie
