Kristian came to the Philippines as Mr. Canada in 2015, then stayed to work as an actor and model prior to shooting Retrocausality. He now has multiple films and tv series' in the works and plans on bringing some to the Philippines in the near future.

"I learned almost everything from the Philippines, I was going to five castings a day. The people in the Philippines are very talented, the weather is great and the locations are special. There's more than enough to shoot great international films and tv in the Philippines." says Diaz.

Retrocausality which released in the Philippines in February, also stars Canadian Elisabeth Rioux, a multi-talented artist and entrepreneur. Elisabeth currently has 1.7 million followers on Instagram. Clips and trailers of Retrocausality have surpassed 100 million views on social media.

Retrocausality is now available to stream for free on Amazon Prime Video in the Philippines and around the world.
