UK, February 4, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Today Fit-tech start-up Trainify announces investment from Rune Sovndahl, Co-Founder and CEO of Fantastic Services.

Fantastic Services CEO Rune Sovndahl will also sit on the Board of Trainify as a Non-Exec Director and will spend time working with Trainify on a weekly basis. Impressively, Rune Sovndahl built Fantastic to a 7 figure business in 10 months and reached 8 figures in 4 years.

Together we set out to transform the fitness industry. Malcolm Graham CEO & Co-Founder of Trainify says “hugely excited about the collaboration and welcoming Rune onboard and taking Trainify to the next level”.

Rune Sovndahl says ‘During the pandemic, I have personally experienced how important physical fitness is on your health and mental well-being and I know the team have had success with their tennis training business Aceify. I think Trainify with their focus on personal 1-1 and strong professional video training that it’s not just a video call but a studio recording makes it very useful, and I know from my experience that the curation of a marketplace app is very important for the quality’

Trainify recently launched a seed fundraising round of £1m. The funds raised will be used on marketing and advanced AI to help build brand awareness and continue to expand.
