

United People Global Launches UPG Learning Lab

United People Global launches the UPG Learning Lab, a series of lessons which are delivered with love and to help people to #maketheworldbetter.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, February 5, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspired by its mission and in the spirit of giving, United People Global announced the launch of the UPG Learning Lab. UPG Learning Lab is a series of online lessons that teach skills which are delivered with love and with the intention to help people to #maketheworldbetter. These lessons are free and chosen so that participants can use them in their professional or in their personal lives. The lab is open to anyone who wants to learn and to teach.

Introducing the UPG Learning Lab

The UPG Learning Lab was unveiled in Geneva (Switzerland) on the world's first International Day of Human Fraternity. And it provides another opportunity for people to share knowledge with each other through lessons that change lives. The lessons can be about new methodologies that people can implement in challenges that they face. Lessons can also be tried and tested practices that help them in their next job interview or with their next venture.

Sharing knowledge and making a greater impact with that knowledge aligns with UPG's mission to make the world a better place. UPG is happy to welcome anyone who wants to learn, to teach and to share. The UPG Learning Lab is a valuable resource for those who would like guidance on implementing their amazing ideas, or a head start as they make a positive impact in their communities.

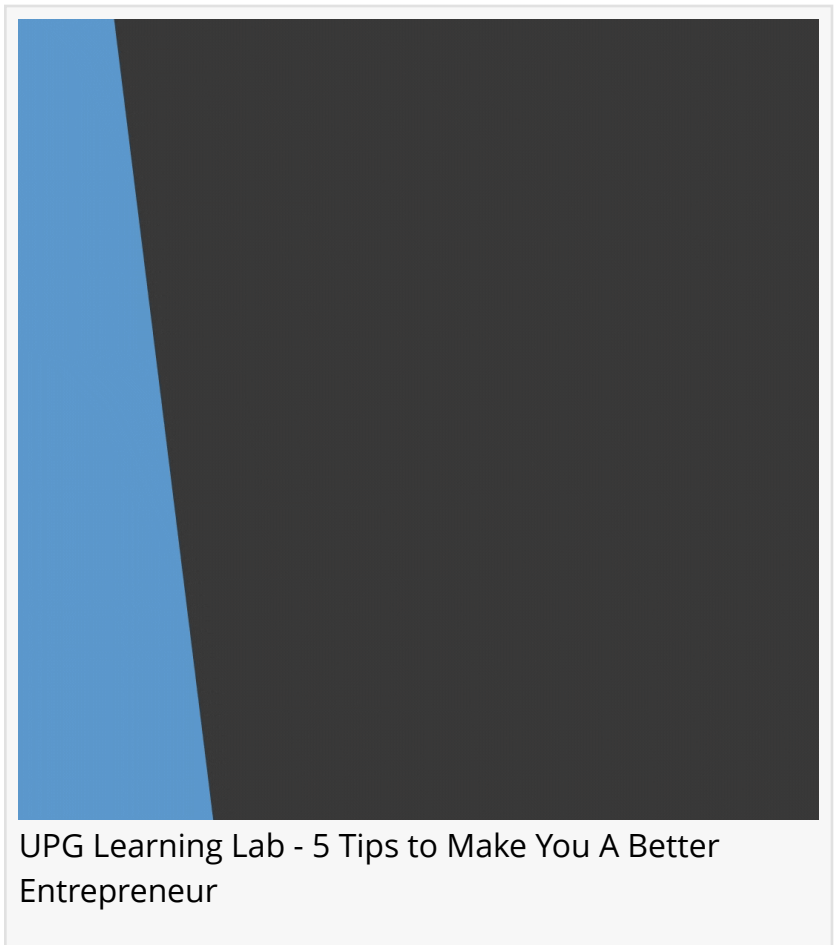

The first lesson takes place on Thursday, 11 February 2021 and features: 5 Tips to Make You A
