

sapeur.wav Releases New EP, Universe Provides

Universe Provides Available Now on All Streaming Platforms

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, February 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Music duo sapeur.wav releases the newest EP, Universe Provides, produced by Numonics.

With past projects, sapeur.wav decided to showcase passions for music with alternative, soul, and funk sounds. Universe Provides is a switch to alt-R&B, bedroom pop, and soul vibes and includes 6 tracks that provide powerful messages.

Universe Provides brings love, positivity, and magic which showcases what the sapeur.wav brand is about. It's all about the idea that the universe puts everything in front of you to make your dream happen, and being able to be in tune enough to notice.

"I think there is enough negative music in the world. I want to be the person that chooses joy and love over everything else," says Katrell, one half of the duo, talking about the inspiration for their music.

The writing process of Universe Provides was a collaborative effort between Numonics and Katrell, as they met on LinkedIn. The best part of this creative process for the team was the final mix production as Numonics is skilled at interpreting sound and song. Numonics works fast and efficiently with music producing and was able to achieve how Katrell envisioned the latest release of Universe Provides.
