The nation faces a historic reckoning. It is imperative the Senate convict former President Donald Trump. At this National Town Hall an extraordinary group of our country's greatest legal scholars, mental health professionals, and historians will each make statements followed by an extensive question period for the media. Media who attend will also be given opportunity for one-on-one interviews with the Panelists.

Panelists:

LAURENCE TRIBE - Constitutional Scholar, Harvard Law School

NORMAN EISEN - Special Counsel for Trump's First Impeachment and Trial

RICHARD PAINTER - Former Chief White House Counsel for George W. Bush

REP. GERRY CONNOLLY - Member, House Oversight Committee, and Chairman, House Subcommittee on Government Operations

CLAIRE FINKELSTEIN - Criminal Lawyer, University of Pennsylvania

RUTH BEN-GHIAT - Historian, New York University

BANDY LEE - Moderator and President, World Mental Health Coalition
