The World of Colorful Ideas

"COVID-19 brought the world to a screeching halt, disrupting our normal ways of living," says CEO Tony Caracciolo. "Consumers are used to browsing in a real store where they can touch, but at the moment not everyone can freely do this, nor would they want to with the possible spread of the virus. The world has dramatically shifted another notch onto social media platforms to explore more online and see what's new. We have that. We offer what is new. You're going to be blown away. There are items within our Collections that will inspire and send pleasantly warm vibes. The products are beautiful, useful and different. Cynosure Shop will be your go-to online destination bringing tasteful apparel, vibrant kitchen accessories and many other relevant items to enhance your life—sincerely creating happiness. Not many online stores have such an exotic, global collection of everything your heart could desire.”

Tony goes on to say, “I’ve travelled 29 countries and worked as a professional model and actor. I even had a great run as a professional baseball player for 10 years. It’s been quite a hectic and eclectic life which inspired me to create Cynosure Shop. I view the personality of Cynosures Collections also as eccentric and well traveled. The Shop was definitely created and with the aim of pleasing those who haven’t traveled and yearn for something inspiring around the house.”

On Your Mark, Get Set, Go Shopping

“Let us introduce you to these quality essential products for men and women,” Tony adds. “We have searched the globe to bring you premiere selections for a stylish and healthy lifestyle. Maybe you’d like to browse our kitchen accessories or decorative home goods? Since many of our customers have been exercising at home, they may be in need of fresh, new mats for yoga, stretching, spiritual activities, from meditation to Pilates and all fitness in general. We even offer a wide selection of cushions to provide comfort during your time away from the mat. Each of these fun cushions have their own colorful personalities adding psychological pizzazz for your physical and spiritual journey. There are products to make your home more beautiful, that add value. Or, perhaps you are interested in very secretive, almost private area very relaxing and harmonious? The Tatami Collection is very ethnic and feels ancient showcasing ceremonial elements and traditional vessels to make your home or work gatherings authentic, warm, inviting and special. We might not provide what goes in the cup, but we do have the cup! The Shop’s items are to be thought of as added value to one’s daily life and for long term investments that bring joy and make a person feel good from the inside out.”

There are clever handmade designs from beautiful wood materials to stunning stainless steel cutlery that add color to the cooking space. So many prepare meals at home. That's life. Cynosure Shop offers minimal accessories to make one's space and time a peaceful interlude between video conferences and TV binging. Natural assortments of elements, including special wooden cups and plates contrast all the necessities coming from nature creating simple enjoyment during any daily setting. What seems so normal and mundane can now be looked at ceremonial as a reminder it's those essential activities that should be truly enjoyed during those present moments.

Cynosure Shop shows promise in bringing yearly delights more than just seasonal greetings to its customers by suggesting considerate, thoughtful shopping. Cynosure Shop offers a Gift Card for a family member or friend, gym pal, essential healthcare worker or colleague. It's the Shop's way to encourage those who have caring individuals in their close circle who really deserve and would appreciate selecting their own special gift of home decor or what they see as a part of personal wellness. Tony says, "Go forth and express your gratitude with a Gift Card, acknowledging how much that special person truly means to them. Showering people with gifts certainly is not a moral core value at Cynosure Shop, but the act of consideration that matters most."
