Beach Resort & Spa Wins "Family" | Hilton Los Cabos Beach and Golf Resort Wins "Golf"

WEST HOLLYWOOD, CA, USA, February 10, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Los Cabos sweeps 3 out of 23 categories in the 2020 Gay Travel AwardsSM. Now in its fifth year, the global competition presented by gaytravel.com announced winners from among hundreds of LGBTQ-friendly and inclusive finalists. Despite the pandemic, 2020 was a record year for voter participation, indicating that travel is still top-of-mind for LGBTQ travelers.

It's very gratifying to win, especially now during these uncertain times...Cabo San Lucas has always represented resilience, beauty, and strength."

Cynthia Ontiveros, Special Segment Manager at Visit Los Cabos

GayTravel's Chief Visionary Officer, Steve Rohrlick, said: "The goal of the GayTravel Awards is to recognize achievement among inclusive travel-related companies and destinations. The awards serve to inspire other companies and brands to embrace a spirit of diversity and LGBTQ inclusiveness. Each of Los Cabos' three winners epitomizes these values, and on behalf of GayTravel.com, we congratulate them!"

Cynthia Ontiveros, Special Segment Manager at Visit Los Cabos, commented: "It's very gratifying to win, especially now during these uncertain times. Cabo San Lucas has always represented resilience, beauty, and strength -- manifested by Los Cabos' iconic 'El Arco' (the arch-shaped rock formation carved out by the force of where the Pacific Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico meet). Winning the 2020 Gay Travel Award for "Beach Destination" reminds us that we'll get through this."

JW Marriott Los Cabos Beach Resort & Spa was crowned victorious among seven finalists as the "Family" category winner. "Family is an integral part of the Mexican culture, and welcoming LGBT families is a special honor. JW Los Cabos Beach Resort is one of those magical places where families create vacation memories that last generations," said Miguel Mestas, General Manager.

The third win for Los Cabos went to Hilton Los Cabos Beach and Golf Resort, prevailing among seven finalists in the "Golf" category. "We are extremely honored to be recognized by our LGBTQ guests," said Hilton Los Cabos General Manager Sergio Bocci. "It's a true testament to our amazing staff and elevated resort offerings, combined with our awe-inspiring desert golf course overlooking the dazzling Sea of Cortez. We look forward to serving LGBTQ travelers for years to come!"
