The NLBM is the world's only museum dedicated to preserving and celebrating the rich history of African American baseball and its impact on the social advancement of America. The privately funded, 501 c3, not-for-profit organization was established in 1990 and is located in the heart of Kansas City, Missouri's Historic 18th & Vine Jazz District. The NLBM operates two blocks from the Paseo YMCA where Andrew "Rube" Foster established the Negro National League in 1920. In 2006, the NLBM earned designation from the United States Congress as "America's National Negro Leagues Baseball Museum."

Rhode Island based Go Against the Current™ is a lifestyle statement founded on the belief that tells others you are your own person, with your own ideas. You are not a follower. You have the ability to teach, collaborate, and contribute with those around you. You have the ability to learn from others. You are not a boss but you are a leader. You make a difference every day of your life, be yourself.
