

Comedian Lori Hamilton's film Project Spudway has been selected for the 2021 season of The Best Shorts Competition

Join the Potato Family as they learn lessons of acceptance

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, February 11, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Hamilton is adept at using comedy to share life lessons. Her film Project Spudway is a continuation of her short film project, Potato Family, with illustrator and animator Montana Hall. It features lessons from Project Runway told through the eyes of animated potatoes. You'll see the first episode featuring fashion guru Christian Siriano's explanation of why we should design for all body types, not just the skinny French fry. Yams and hashbrowns add colour and flavour to the spud-tactic design show, complete with outtakes! TheLoriHamilton.com

Lori Hamilton's Project Spudway Selected for The Best Shorts Competition

I'm so proud that the message of acceptance brought forward by Project Spudway is resonating with people!”

Lori Hamilton

Hamilton's inciteful and comedic film about corporate life, Corporate Knobs, has also been selected for The Best Shorts Competition as well. The Corporate Knobs is a comedy variety show that gives you the TRUTH about work life. From How to Be a Bad Manager, Guess the HR Outcome, Real World Job Descriptions and Cat Co-Workers, you'll see the hilarious and very real world of life in Corporate America.
