

ILT AND LOANPRO® LAUNCH SYSTEMS INTEGRATION TO BENEFIT MUTUAL CLIENTS

SALT LAKE CITY, UT, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, February 11, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Integrated Lending Technologies, LLC (ILT) and LoanPro Software, LLC. (LoanPro) have completed the integration of ILT's Allegro™ Lending Suite with LoanPro's loan management and servicing software. Allegro™ is a cloud-based loan origination system, with modules for direct, indirect and lifestyle lending. Now all data can be exported to the lender's LoanPro® system with a couple of mouse clicks in Allegro™. The origination, analysis and decisioning of the application as well as the funding and booking of the loan, can all now be handled in Allegro™, eliminating double data entry and paper shuffling and minimizing manual input error. Two independent finance company clients are already benefiting from the completed integration.

The integration will make Allegro™ more valuable to LoanPro® users, and we're confident it will make LoanPro® a stronger offering in its own market.”

Will McGregor

Regarding the integration, Will McGregor, President and CEO of ILT said, “The ultimate objective of all product development at ILT is maximizing the efficiency of the lending process for all our lender clients. Automated transfer of loan data from Allegro™ to the lender's core loan management system enhances our product and helps us achieve that overall goal. We see an increasing number of independent finance companies looking for the technology to help them compete more effectively with banks and credit unions. That's why we are so pleased to complete the link with LoanPro®. The integration will make Allegro™ more valuable to LoanPro® users, and we're confident it will make LoanPro® a stronger offering in its own market.”

Lloyd Roberts, CRO of LoanPro® said, “We're excited about the Allegro™/LoanPro integration as it assists in further streamlining the loan origination/loan servicing workflow that lenders so desperately desire to automate. This partnership/integration is in line with LoanPro's mission to provide lenders with greater data-visibility and workflow automation. We are honored to be working with Allegro™ in helping to achieve our mutual focus of a better customer experience.”
