

Registration opens for the 6th Annual Future Armoured Vehicles Weapon Systems Conference

SMi Group reports: Registration and the agenda are now available for the virtual Future Armoured Vehicles Weapon Systems conference this June.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, February 11, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group's Future Armoured Vehicles Weapon Systems conference will return on 2nd and 3rd June 2021 as a virtual event to provide a vital platform where international military leaders, along with industry decision makers can explore the latest developments in firepower capabilities and weapon systems for next generation armoured vehicles.

For those interested in attending the event, it is £499 for military and government personnel and just £999 for commercial organisations. Register at <http://www.fav-ws.com/pr1>

Leading armoured vehicle programme managers, officers involved in innovative beyond line-of-sight fire systems, and experts of delivering network enabled capability within armoured vehicles, will be giving updates on the latest turret, weapon systems and munitions being developed.

A snapshot of the 2021 speaker line-up:

- Brigadier General Richard Coffman, Director - Next Combat Vehicle Cross Functional Team, US Army Futures Command
- Brigadier General Matthew J. Van Wagenen, Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations, Headquarters,
