

Valentine's Week: Autobahn Jacksonville Proves That Axes (And Races) Make The Heart Grow Stronger

Autobahn Indoor Speedway & Events and Autobahn Axe celebrate Valentine's Week and bring new meaning to "speed dating."

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA, USA, February 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For those couples who believe the year's most romantic holiday is way too important for just one day, Autobahn Indoor Speedway & Events and Autobahn Axe Jacksonville at 6601 Executive Park Ct. N are offering a full week of specials guaranteed to make your and your special someone's heart beat a little faster.

From Monday, February 8 through Sunday, February 14, competitive couples can get two free races with the purchase of two races. During that same time, "Straight to the Heart" gives local lovebirds the chance to enjoy an one-and-one half hour session of friendly axe throwing competition, including instruction from an expert coach, and one race each for just $49.95. Throughout the 80,000 square foot facility, which is the size of two football fields, social distancing, mask wearing, and other CDC and public health guidelines are strictly adhered to and enforced. Learn more about the organization's intensive cleaning and disinfecting process here.

Finally, for those whose relationships are built to go the distance, the "Dinner and a Throw" for $99.95 per couple and offered Saturday, February 13 and Sunday February 14, offers 2.5 hours of axe throwing, racing, arcade games, barbeque, wine, heart-shaped cheesecake and more.

"It has all the elements of a great date," says David Larson, managing partner. "There's time to talk together, then compete together. If you've been together a long time, nothing rekindles that
