Scott Thompson

BestinsuranceLeads.com prides itself on accelerating growth for insurance businesses through new customer acquisition. By leveraging its proprietary technological platform, insurance businesses can scale their new customer base.

Scott Thompson, CEO maintains that Best Insurance Leads provides businesses with the right consumer given their particular target market. Insurance agents are impressed with the quality of leads they have acquired but also with the diversity of options they gain with Best Insurance Leads.

Following the recent news of President Biden's plan to start open enrolment for health and Medicare insurance from February 15 to May 15, BestinsuranceLeads.com gives you access to exclusive leads, shared leads, and live transfer leads to help agents close more sales. The healthcare enrolment move by President Biden was motivated by some courses he championed as vice president. This is excellent news for most Americans that might have been affected by the pandemic. Biden exercised his executive power to allow uninsured people to select policies that suit them at a time when Americans need choices.

Based on Biden's health care promises, strengthening the Affordable Care Act was one way to help many people get the health insurance coverage they need. The healthcare enrolment period is predicted to last more than six weeks.

Health insurance officials will also focus on Medicare/Medicaid, expanding it enough to benefit low earning Americans.

BestinsuranceLeads.com is a proprietary lead generation platform built for Insurance companies and agents. The company is located in Fort Worth, Texas.
