During a recent interview, the owner of FunFlicks was quoted as saying, “Since COVID-19, community fairgrounds have been just devastated. We thought that initiating this campaign to work with local fairgrounds would be a great way for us to bring our communities back to the fair in an unique way. We miss our local fairs but if we can provide a little hope for them and create some revenue stream, we have to help.”

He went on to say, “During these times when it’s hard to even visit a movie theater, families can come on down to their local fairgrounds for an old-school drive-in movie. If fairgrounds in each
