

African Drumming Event on February 25th to Get You Into The Beat & Help Build Schools in KwaZulu-Natal South Africa

Participate in a creative African drumming event to get you into the rhythm with drumming enthusiast Natalie Spiro while supporting Africa Classroom Connection.

MINNEAPOLIS, MN, UNITED STATES,
February 16, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/
-- Unite. Uplift. Inspire.

Everyone is invited to participate in this virtual interactive program to learn African drumming. We'll be led by the enthusiastic South African native Natalie Spiro, Founder of Drum Cafe North America. No drums or experience needed. Be creative - kitchen utensils, jars of popcorn, metal bowls, etc. can all be used.

Proceeds benefit Africa Classroom Connection to build desperately-needed schools in rural South Africa where there is a significant lack of infrastructure due to the lasting effects of apartheid and the continued lack of government funding. Children are forced to learn under trees until we can build classrooms for them. Support of this nonprofit means your ticket price is fully tax-deductible.

About Africa Classroom Connection

Building schools. Building futures.

Classrooms are changing lives in rural KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa where kids are limited to learning under trees while they wait for desperately-needed schools to be built. Proceeds from ticket sales help build schools, providing access to education opportunities for many deserving children. Your support creates a brighter, happier future for these children to reach their full potential.
