

Jerusalem launches it's first major tourist project for 2021

On February 21st, Jerusalem will bring back the light in a breathtaking and exciting project in which dozens of iconic landmarks

JERUSALEM, ISRAEL, February 16, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jerusalem is preparing to welcome back tourists once again in a healthy and safe manner. As a first Post-Covid step for the tourism field in Jerusalem, the Ministry of Jerusalem and Heritage, the Jerusalem Municipality, the Jerusalem Development Authority, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Tourism are planning a large event, focusing on health and safety. "Jerusalem - Follow the Lights" is a breathtaking and exciting project that restores light into these difficult COVID times, after months at home, isolation and lockdowns.

Until tourists from around the world can come to the city once again, there invited to enjoy the unique project as if they were there. Starting from

Follow the lights

Jerusalem launches it's first major tourist project for 2021

February 21st, they will be offered the opportunity to enjoy light, art, resilience, hope and excitement, and feel the atmosphere of one of the most special cities in the world, from the comfort of their homes. They will have the option to enter the "Follow the lights" site online, send greetings to their loved ones which will be displayed on the Cords Bridge that will become the biggest LED screen in Jerusalem, and have a chance to create exciting and personalized animations of their family driving through the Holy City.

Dozens of iconic landmarks will be illuminated and transformed into work of arts, revealing hidden gems and offering new perspectives never seen before, all designed by Gil Teichman, the biggest light and event entrepreneur in Israel. The Artistic directors of the project are Meirav Eitan and Gaston Saár. Together with people from around the world who will enjoy the illuminated sites from their homes, visitors that will be in the city will enjoy a tour through a brightly and colorfully illuminated Jerusalem from the comfort of their car, while adhering to all public health regulations. They would also have the option to enjoy the city's culinary scene by ordering dishes from restaurants and enjoy take out while touring Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is preparing to bring back tourism into the city after a year of Covid-19

The list of locations is stunning and includes world famous sites such as The Israel Museum that will give a glance to its collection and dozens of unique and priceless pieces of art and historical artefacts that will be transformed through digital technology, creating digital art that can be enjoyed in a completely new and exciting way. Other well-known sites are the Tower of David, YMCA and many more, presented in a new light and context.

Live streams of the broadcast from the Israel Museum and the tower of David will be provided on the Jerusalem Development Authority's social media on Sunday, February 21st.

www.followthelights.org.il www.itraveljerusalem.com

Yossi Yudkovich Galai PR +972 54-486-5215 email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: https://www.einpresswire.com/article/535550783

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.