

Introducing Jamaica's Top Artist and Music Consultant, LuckyKidd

Look out for LuckyKidd, former Reggae and dancehall musician, now a gospel artist.

KINGSTON, SAINT. ANN, JAMAICA, February 17, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hard work and determination can get you anywhere, and LuckyKidd is living proof of that. His songwriting skills have pushed him to master the art of producing independent music. From gospel to reggae and dancehall, LuckyKidd music has always been versatile. The artist hopes that his music can instill listeners with a feeling of hope, peace, and fulfillment in life as they pursue their dreams.

One of his most recent singles out on Youtube is "Turn Your Back," from the reggae album, 'True Leader.' The heavy beats of this song along with the lyrics paint a vivid picture of the ups and downs of life. Listeners relate to the song as well as the album on a deep level. That is why 'True Leader' peaked at #3 on the USA Amazon Reggae Chart.

To turn his music into masterpieces, he has worked with many major musical personalities in the industry. The artist has worked closely with recording artist, producer, and CEO of Timezone International Records, Lynk da Boss. He has also had the opportunity to collaborate with beat composers like Slickwidit Records and Cruz Rock for his 'True Leader' album.

The singer-songwriter gained recognition after performing with artists Popcaan, Bounty Killer, Chronixx, Beenie Man, D Angel, Zagga, and Elephant Man. By working with so many diverse artists, the singer-songwriter got to start Music&Royalties Explained, a society created to educate independent musicians about the industry.
