

CultureOwl Adds Two New Franchise Locations to Network

Rapidly expanding franchise welcomes new franchisees.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, February 17, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CultureOwl, a platform dedicated to promoting arts, culture and entertainment, has just signed two new franchise deals.

The two newest territories are to begin development in Palm Beach and Tampa/St. Pete, Florida. The company first launched its franchise opportunity in 2020 from its headquarters in Miami. "I am thrilled that we are not only selling franchises, but keeping the love for the arts alive and well," stated Amy Sherit, Owner and Founder of CultureOwl.

The company is dedicated to propelling thriving cultural communities. Culture lovers can register through the website or download the app, and follow on social media to stay informed.

"We are providing cultural organizations with a platform to showcase their events while empowering culture lovers to experience culture on their own terms. There is so much talent out there and so many things to experience and do, but sadly most people who don't follow CultureOwl have no idea they are happening," stated Sherit. "We are excited to continue our expansion and see where CultureOwl flies to next."
