FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, ATTENTION INVESTMENT EDITORS

Veripath Farmland Partners is pleased to announce it has qualified to become a signatory to the United Nations-supported Principles for Responsible Investments Initiative (UN PRI). Founded in 2006, UN PRI is a network of global investors committed to working together to put principles of responsible investing into practice. Signatories follow a set of six principles that protect the environment, benefit society, and promote sound governance.

Veripath is one of a small number Canadian farmland investment entities to qualify to join UN PRI. "Veripath is pleased to be welcomed into a worldwide family of funds that recognize the importance of sustainable farming practices and investing," said managing partner Stephen Johnston. "Becoming a signatory to this expanding initiative is part of our continuous process to deepening an already strong commitment to sound farm management practices and to protect the agronomic integrity of our land portfolios."

Who is Veripath: Veripath is a Canadian alternative investment firm. Members of Veripath's management team have decades of farmland, private equity, and private credit investment experience and manage over 70,000 acres of Canadian row crop farmland. Veripath implements its farmland strategy in a way that seeks to preserve as far as possible farmland's low-volatility return profile – the attribute that generates a material portion of Canadian farmland's superior risk adjusted return profile. Veripath does this by seeking to minimize operational, weather, geographic and business-related risks – and capture the pure return from land appreciation. Canadian zero-till farmland portfolios may also be a useful addition to ESG driven mandates combining superior risk adjusted returns with environmental benefits.
