About

Yuce is an up-and-coming powerhouse of talent and force in the genres of Rap and Hip-Hop music. A 26-year-old hailing from Boston, Massachusetts, Yuce has been rapping since he was a kid in high school and has been involved in creating and producing music for 7 years, aiming to create compositions that not refresh and release but also allow people to internalize some key message for their life.

Initially just going with the flow and experimenting with his vocal talents and musical ideas, Yuce has only recently fully immersed himself in producing and creating music for the world, putting his talents and vocal genius out there for the world.

Years of experimenting and listening to music that fit his taste really helped Yuce to fully internalize Hip Hop as a genre as well as self-actualize and identify his own musical coming and inspirations. Yuce identifies as a very culture-driven singer and song writer having grown up in a traditional and close-knitted Trinidadian household. Both of his parents are from Trinidad and Tobago and coming from what he describes as a “huge” family, he is blessed with lots of brothers and sisters. Apart from his musical interests, Yuce spends time working out, travelling, watching sports and make money.
