“By adding more Microsoft Competencies to our existing achievements, Dobler demonstrates its dedication to the clients as well as its commitment to excellence. Our multiple attainments assure our clients that they are working with a knowledgeable partner.” – Peter Dobler, CEO of Dobler Consulting.

Dobler Consulting continues to demonstrate its proven expertise by delivering quality solutions in one or more specialized areas of business. These Microsoft competencies are designed to prepare companies, like Dobler, to better meet their customers' needs.

Attaining a Silver competency demonstrates consistent capability and commitment. Whereas, attaining a Gold competency demonstrates the best-in-class capability within a Microsoft solution area. As of January 2021, Dobler Consulting has acquired four expertise levels with Microsoft, three of those being Gold-Level. The company is now Gold certified for Application Integration, Data Analytics and Data Platform. They additionally have a Silver badge for Microsoft's Cloud Platform.
