HerSuiteSpot Founder and Best Selling Author Marsha Guerrier has been amplifying the voices of women of color through her anthologies books since 2017. In her latest anthology "Pathways to HerRise" shares the personal stories of nine women of color entrepreneurs whose businesses were affected by the COVID19 pandemic. These authors have experienced barriers and success in their businesses and are providing other women with practical advice to help them as they work to shatter their glass ceiling.

Pathways to HerRise is an inspiring business resource that will motivate women to discover their pathway to rise in their career and business. The limiting beliefs of others, imposter syndrome, fear of rejection, and the need to be perfect are the most widespread feelings that women report as to why they are either slow to start their side business or have not yet leaped to becoming their own boss.

Co-authors Marsha Guerrier, Gretchen Campbell, Sundrae "Sunny" Miller, Ilka Huntley McElveen, Dr. Jennifer Pierre, Azra Khalfan-Kermali, Dr. Shelley Cooper, Sheena Parker, Dr. Erika D. Tate, and Liana Robinson provide women with strategies on how to overcome these barriers to entrepreneurship.
