Accelevents | Virtual & Hybrid Events Platform

With over 20 years of industry experience, Surasky brings an extensive level of expertise and knowledge, along with a consultative mindset, to a rapidly evolving customer landscape. During his tenure at Eventbrite, Surasky established business development teams in multiple client segments including Enterprise, Midmarket, and Sales Development.

"I am extremely pleased to welcome Jared to the Accelevents team," said Kazarian. "Jared has a deep understanding of the event landscape and proven experience developing go-to-market teams that place both the attendee and event professional first."

Prior to joining Accelevents, Surasky spent 9 years leading sales teams at Eventbrite where he helped with the architecture and implementation of strategic business development and revenue retention efforts. In addition, Surasky focused on pipeline strategy, sales enablement, strategic partnerships, and liaising with the broader business on company initiatives around product growth and efficiency.

"I am thrilled to be part of the Acelevents team," said Surasky. "I've spent my career at the cross-section of the events industry and technology, and I look forward to continuing that tradition by building upon Acelevents' commitment to client-focused solutions and service."
