the basics of finding an attorney after a car or trucking accident. With a population of 141,000, McAllen is just behind Brownsville as a population center in the Rio Grande Valley. Like Brownsville, McAllen has more than its share of traffic accidents, not just car wrecks but also trucking accidents. Secondarily, the firm has announced a new landing page on the primary site at <https://jvlawfirm.net/mcallen/>. The page works with the new microsite to alert McAllen residents that they have many choices when it comes to finding top-rated personal injury or accident lawyers in Hidalgo and Cameron Counties. The Rio Grande Valley is enormous, but few lawyers approach a car or truck accident victim with the passion shown by Javier Villarreal. Javier is known as “Mr. Three Million” and “The Fighter” in and around Brownsville and his fame has spread up to nearby McAllen.

CAR AND TRUCK WRECKS HAPPEN IN MCALLEN

Here is background on this release. In some ways, accidents do not care whether a victim lives or works in McAllen or some other community in the Rio Grande Valley. A resident in McAllen, for example, might commute down to Brownsville for a job. Or a resident in Brownsville might commute up to Harlingen for a trip to the airport. Then, a car or trucking accident might happen. Suddenly a trip becomes a big hassle. What should the person do? Here are three steps. First, the person has to make sure that their person and people in their car or truck are safe. Second, they need to worry about the vehicle and call the police department or emergency services in McAllen or the nearest community if necessary. And finally they may need a best-in-class personal injury lawyer to represent their interest against well-funded insurance-company lawyers. Those looking for information on trucking accidents and the need to find a top-rated attorney can visit <https://jvlawfirm.net/practice-areas/trucking-accidents/>. Regardless of whether or not it's a truck or car accident, the new page explains that a person in McAllen has every right to the very best accident attorney in McAllen Texas, the one who fights for their interest with passion.
