"I think parents should know all of their birthing options so they can make informed decisions during the birth of their baby," said Tara. "While a healthy mom and a healthy baby are the most important part, I also believe that childbirth can be a beautiful, bonding, comfortable and spiritually transforming experience."

Students will appreciate this comprehensive resource of fun, interactive, bite-size lessons in a convenient, online format including 7 hours of class lectures covering a wide variety of topics, meditations and affirmations, on-going support from the instructor and so much more.
