BURLINGTON, ONTARIO, CANADA, February 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We are excited to

The acquisition of InRoads provides us with an even stronger presence in Halton Region. They are seasoned insurance brokers and bring their considerable expertise in group insurance.”

Dan Avon, President, AIM Insurance

announce that AIM Insurance has acquired InRoads Insurance Brokers of Milton, Ontario effective February 15, 2021. This merger allows both companies to create a larger organization that is poised for future growth. In today's marketplace, large corporate brokers continue to buy brokers. Business volume is essential to receiving full support from insurance companies.

Established in 2011, InRoads Insurance Brokers Inc. was started by Andrew Hale, Jay MacDonald and Bryan McClenaghan. As a new generation brokerage, they provide their clients with a portfolio review, not just a quote for their home and auto insurance needs. They are dedicated to providing their clients with quality home and auto insurance products, valued expertise, and exceptional service at a fair price.

According to AIM President Dan Avon, “The acquisition of InRoads provides us with an even stronger presence in Halton Region where we are concentrated. The InRoads team are seasoned insurance brokers and they bring their considerable expertise in group insurance. In addition, we are now licensed in Alberta, with British Columbia following in the coming months. This allows us to further expand our reach. Growing opportunities with our new team is something that I am very much looking forward to. AIM is always on the lookout for great brokers to bring into our growing family.”
