

HIP Video Promo presents: Natalie Joly releases a rock ballad new music video "Yours To Stay" on Music News

As the song unfolds, so does the emotional journey driven by Natalie Joly's powerful vocals and the song's cinematic sound.

BOSTON, MA, USA, March 1, 2021
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Watch "Yours To Stay" by Natalie Joly on Music News

Award-winning pop-rock recording artist Natalie Joly, 24, is a career singer, songwriter, and musician who wrote her first song at age 8. A performer in New England for over a decade, Natalie has built a reputation for her powerful vocals, vibrant performances, and edgy rock-infused pop songs that are at once relatable and addictively unique. Releasing her first self-produced CD at 17, Natalie released an EP at 19, followed by her single "Irresistible" in 2018. In 2019, she released another single called "You Oughta Know," which received regional acclaim as Song of the Year. In November of 2020, Natalie released her first fully self-produced song, "Running Circles," created during the pandemic, and then released "Will You Ever Stop" in January 2021 — the first two singles from her upcoming album, both with accompanying videos. "Yours to Stay", Natalie's latest release, is the third single, released February 26 along with its music video.

Natalie has gained a large social media following, with over 7,500 YouTube Subscribers, over 60,000 Instagram followers, and over 6,000 followers on Facebook. Her Instagram videos have accumulated over 10 million views.

Natalie's music brings together modern pop elements, live instruments, and irresistible lyrics with sounds of classic rock. She has a captivating style, influenced in her songwriting and sound by such renowned artists as Steven Tyler of Aerosmith, The Beatles, Taylor Swift, Tom Petty, and many more.

Natalie Joly

"Yours to Stay" is a rock power ballad about elusive love and making one last effort in a relationship that has yet to fully come to be. As the song unfolds, so does the emotional journey driven by Natalie Joly's powerful vocals and the song's cinematic sound. Joly crafted three strong lead parts that intertwine beautifully, perhaps musically aiding the story's multiple lines about what is, what might have been, and what will be. The video starring Joly releases the same day as the song (February 26) and is the second of Joly's videos filmed in an abandoned Wakefield mansion, now torn down. The song was written and produced by Joly, who also performed vocals, piano, and strings (electronic).

More Natalie Joly on her website

More Natalie Joly on HIP Video Promo

Andrew Gesner
HIP Video Promo
+1 732-613-1779
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/535997705>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.