

A PARENT'S WORST NIGHTMARE: A RINGING PHONE at 2 a.m.

Powerful story co-authored by parents of a 19-year-old girl killed in drinking/driving accident. The driver was their daughter's best friend since childhood.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, UNITED STATES, March 4, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Life Changing Stories Press releases true story for worldwide distribution: On Shattered Wings.

In 2002, 19-year-old Jennifer Dultmeier was killed in a drinking and driving automobile accident. The driver was Jennifer's best friend since childhood.

On Shattered Wings is an unforgettable true story of a family's struggle to survive overwhelming sorrow amidst startling events, including Jennifer's brother turning to meth to deal with his grief. Along this family's healing journey, they discover the value of faith, the insignificance of regrets, and the realization there can be joy again through harnessing pain into healing action.

On Shattered Wings is proof that a heart can heal enough to live again but not enough to forget.

"This book is a powerful read for anyone experiencing profound grief or for those wanting to help others through difficult times. It is invaluable in shedding light on the shattering impact of driving impaired or distracted." —Lori Marshall, Program Manager, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), Kansas State Office

I went to bed trying to forget my words to Jennifer before she left. I would apologize later. But later never came. Instead, the phone rang. It was 2:20 a.m. Our lives would never be the same.”

Jim Dultmeier, Jennifer's dad.
