"I am very thankful that the New York City leadership of the Hellenic Greek American community invited me to speak at this multicultural, and diverse citywide grassroots webinar event. OATH's continuing mission is to provide fair and neutral administrative proceedings, which protect the due process rights of all litigants-the public at large," stated Commissioner Kletter.

The event was in association with George Zouvelos, the elected AHEPA NY State District six Warden, and the Executive Producer of Fiat Lux Pictures and Film Studios; the AHEPA Hermes Ch. No. 186 of Astoria New York City; the Old Astoria Neighborhood Association; #AHEPA New York Empire State District 6; Dimitris Filippidis, a radio host and journalist from Hellas-FM Hellenic-Radio; George Alexiou, the President of the Greek American Homeowners Association; the American Sephardic Federation; the Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce; the Manhattan, Brooklyn, Bronx, Queens, and Staten Island Chambers of Commerce; and, other community and business leaders. Moreover, New York State Senator Andrew Gounardes, and New York Assembly Member Michael Tannousis were invited attendees.

"Over 50, 000 different types of violations can be issued by more than a dozen New York city agencies to individuals, homeowners and businesses. That is why I deemed it crucial and agreed to host this informative and free event, in association with our grassroots community and business partners," stated #LouisKatsos.

The "NYC Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (OATH) Community Service" Panel Discussion event was organized by George Zouvelos, along with OATH Deputy Commissioner of Legislative Affairs John Castelli Esq., and Special Assistant to the Commissioner Rachel Amar, who together with other OATH staff assisted in organizing this Public Service free event.

"Only by continually working together, we will keep making New York City an amazing place to live, raise families, and own businesses," stated
