

Emmy's is ready to fight hunger

See how local entrepreneur Chef Tim and Emmy's Handcrafted Meals is pitching in to fight hunger in South Florida!

WESTLAKE, FL, UNITED STATES, March 4, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- So excited to announce Emmy's Handcrafted Meals newest partner - The Soup Kitchen of Boynton Beach!

We accidentally over-ordered from our distributor this week and decided to donate these and all our future leftovers to this great organization helping food-insecure families in the area. According to Feeding South Florida, our local food bank: 184,110 people are currently without reliable access to affordable, nutritious food.

Emmy's at the Soup Kitchen of Boynton Beach

The Soup Kitchen of Boynton Beach helps:

- Feed homeless and families in Palm Beach County
- Delivers meals via their Meals on Wheels program
- Provides groceries, diapers and baby needs to moms and families in our community.

“

As a meal delivery service business, we end our customer's hunger all the time. Now we're committing to ending hunger in our community.”

Chef Tim Dobosz

You can help them by donating:

- Non-perishable foods
- Baby items and diapers
- Donations by cash or check
- Your time through volunteering.
