Referrals are a leading source of finding legal representation in a majority of cases. The legal industry relies heavily on client trust – and so it makes sense that people would want a lawyer who comes with personal recommendations.

It is Important to be Prepared

Economic factors have led to layoffs and job cuts across industries. However, the pandemic has only worsened the situation. Massive layoffs have begun with leading names such as Bank of America and Citigroup have already announced plans to lay off hundreds and thousands of employees because of COVID, higher taxes, and other economic factors.

So, you definitely want to be prepared for what could be inevitable.
