

Gateway Records Releases Lofi Music Project

New "Life In Lo-Fi" album project features Lofi music producers from around the globe

NASHVILLE, TN, USA, March 5, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gateway Records, an independent record label, today announced the release of their latest compilation album project. The album, entitled "Life In Lo-Fi" features eleven all new Lofi Hip Hop beats from producers around the world. Featured artists were curated onto the project by Gateway's staff, and collectively represent an emerging class of exceptional producers.

The project builds on Gateway's legacy as the world's first all-compilation album record label. "This project is an exciting expansion of the soundscape we've been building over the last few years," said Gateway Records CEO Scott Thomas. "Lofi music is hugely popular around the world, and we wanted to showcase the genre beautifully, but also to highlight some incredible producers in the process," he added.

Life In Lo-Fi is available through all digital music outlets including Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, Pandora, TIDAL, and more. The album's lush soundscape features notable Lofi music producers NorthSky, rspbrry, jüle, and Nydia. It also debuts producer Matcha Boi, who's first-ever track "A Coffee Date" is a playful journey through the the angst and sheer excitement of a first date, shared over a warm espresso. "I'm thankful for the Gateway Records team for allowing my debut single to appear on this Lofi project. I am excited to let the song take fans on a fun adventure of love and joy," said producer Matcha Boi.

The album features beautiful hand-drawn artwork from Dallas based digital artist Galaxy Girl.
