Proclaimed as an "obvious labor of love" by Blueink Review, this book is a read worth your while

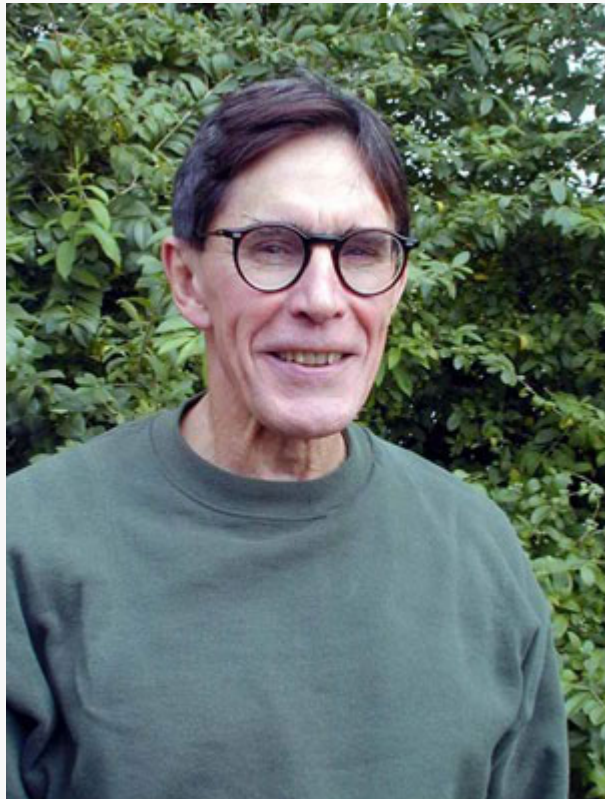

COOKSTOWN, NEW JERSEY, USA, March 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- William Fortenbaugh puts pen to paper to immortalize the glory and pay tribute to a twenty-eight-foot wooden Catboat called Ghost. In From Beaton's to Beach Haven: A Cat Ghost Bh G, William brings to light the magnificence of catboats. And although not many—even the sailing buffs—know about these elegant racing boats, through William's book, he reintroduces these catboats to a wider audience.

William (Bill) Fortenbaugh, a Professor Emeritus of Classics at Rutgers University, whose professional career focused on Aristotle and his School, is also an avid sailor beginning at the age of eight. In retirement, he came to recognize the unique value of the A Cat and of David Beaton and Sons, where Ghost was built. The resulting book is a collaborative effort, to which the builders at Beaton's, the crew of Ghost, photographers, and friends all contributed.

With William's keen observation to details, meticulousness, combined with his adept skill in writing plus more than 140 color photos and assorted
