

A Different Kind of Easter Egg and Sugar Treat from Griddly

Griddly's Just Add Egg and Just Add Sugar kits fit into any Easter basket without the calories.

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, March 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In unusual times, Griddly Games has an unusual idea for this year's Easter basket. Griddly Games has an egg kit and a sugar kit that just might make Easter an egg-tra sweet day for science and craft fans.

Griddly Games today announced that its egg-ceptional science + art activity kits, Just Add Egg and Just Add Sugar, fit into any Easter basket without the calories.

Just Add Egg and Just Add Sugar are two different kit "ingredients" that are "added" to Griddly's most successful product series, that includes the multi-award-winning STEAM (Science Technology Engineering Art Math) kits: Just Add Milk, Just Add Sun, Just Add Glue, Just Add Baking Soda, and Just Add Fruits & Veggies.

Just Add Egg (MSRP $29.95 for ages 5 and up) is the egg-citing new kit that is an egg-cellent way for science to be egg-ceptionally fun. Like all of the Just Add kits, this product comes with everything you need except for the adding ingredient. This time, add egg for multiple bio-organic experiments and art activities. Just Add Egg is the eco-friendly kit that will inspire any artist or scientist. Enjoy making up to five different egg-speriments and seven different art egg-tivities including making your own dinosaur egg, egg shell geode, or even make an egg totally disappear!

Griddly Games' Just Add Egg and Just Add Sugar are great Easter gift ideas

Just Add Sugar (MSRP $24.95 for ages 8 and up) is the sweet way for science and art to be even more fun. Just add your own sugar for multiple organic chemical experiments and art activities. Enjoy making homemade candy, of course, and don't forget to clean up with your new homemade sugar-inspired soap!

Reisa Schwartzman, founder and president of Griddly Games, said, "Just Add Egg and Just Add Sugar are great complement to all of the decorated eggs and jelly beans in the basket. Parents can be happy that we are always trying to provide activity-based products that encourage and engage children, boys and girls, about the fun and interest in science."
