teams must work with internal lines of business and external service providers to ensure that data privacy is operationalized down to the smallest detail—and that governance is in place to maintain readiness in a continuously evolving environment" says Jill Reber, General Manager of Data Privacy at Logic20/20.

"Our approach to your data privacy involves an ongoing understanding of the complete data lifecycle and uses, both within and outside of your organization. We help you understand all the data in your organization, automate where appropriate, and put processes in place to manage that data and make sure you stay prepared.”

As an ADCG affiliate member, Logic20/20 will leverage its expertise, services, and products at ADCG’s virtual and live training and networking events and will help ADCG in its mission to provide members and their organizations with the tools they need to enhance compliance and satisfy regulatory requirements.

ADCG is a membership organization providing information, analysis, networking, education and training in data privacy, protection, compliance and cyber resilience to Governance, Risk and Compliance Functions.
