“Educating people of faith to engage in public affairs is important for maintaining biblical values in our society,” according to Richard Harris, T&L Executive Director.

“The Truth and Liberty Coalition is becoming one of the most influential groups not only in the conservative Christian sphere, but in America as a whole. Their information is vetted thoroughly as are the guests who they interview, which results in valuable information. I strongly endorse their podcast to Americans all over the nation, whether you are a Christian or not,” said Lt. Gen. (Ret.) William G. Boykin.

Established in 2019 by Andrew Wommack, founder of the Andrew Wommack Ministries, and other Christian leaders the organization offers a variety of programs, tools and resources to be able to focus on key social issues.

“We find often that churches and pastors don’t know where to start,” said a T&L official. “Our goal is to educate our audience and connect them with resources and organizations across the nation to help them impact their own spheres of influence.”

Every Monday T&L offers a live cast at 6pm MST/8PM EST. Viewers and listeners can get cultural analysis and biblical insight from Christian leaders.

There is also a "24/7 News Feed" with news and op-eds from a variety of sources all in one place that is updated every 15 minutes.

"The Truth and Liberty Coalition provides just what Americans have been looking for: Practical tools to impact our culture. Every week they present an exciting interactive webcast connecting concerned citizens with leading conservative thinkers and activists. Their website is a treasure trove of resources. It equips those who love our Country with the instruments needed for, 'such a time as this.' The Truth and Liberty Coalition is helping all of us to make a real difference in this precious cause: liberty," said Fmr. Cong. Bob McEwen.

The "Research Center" on the website is a practical resource to use when wanting to learn more about social issues. Currently, viewers will find a host of helpful tools for voting, as well as information on election integrity, COVID-19, Right-to-Life, religious liberty, the Constitution and more. Also available are manuals and training to start a "Community Impact Team," and how to run for office as a Christian Conservative. Conservative jobs are also found on the site.

"We see a Church unengaged in the public square because we have been conditioned to believe there is a disconnect between the secular and sacred. There is not. We have been commissioned to bring Heaven to this earth, to its people – every tribe and tongue," according to the T&L website.

The organization offers exceptionally low-cost membership and accepts donations.
