

Skill Distillery's Java Coding Bootcamp Earns 2021-2022 Military Friendly® School Designation

The Military Friendly® Schools list is created each year based on extensive research on 8,800 schools nationwide.

DENVER, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, March 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Institutions earning the Military Friendly® School designation were evaluated using both public data sources and responses from a proprietary survey. Over 1,200 schools participated in the 2021-2022 survey with 747 earning the designation.

The 2021-2022 Military Friendly® Schools list will be published in the May issue of G.I. Jobs magazine and can be found at www.militaryfriendly.com.

Methodology, criteria, and weightings were determined by Viqtory with input from the Military Friendly® Advisory Council of independent leaders in the higher education and military recruitment community. Final ratings were determined by combining the institution's survey response set and government/agency public data sources, within a logic-based scoring assessment. They measure the institution's ability to meet thresholds for Student Retention, Graduation, Job Placement, Loan Repayment, Persistence (Degree Advancement or Transfer), and Loan Default rates for all students and, specifically, for student veterans.

“Veterans can make extraordinary programmers! The drive, discipline and attention to detail required for success in the military can be easily adapted to coding. Our coding school is certified to accept VA benefits and we have a strong commitment to working with veterans to translate their military skill-set into civilian jobs. Our veteran students are provided an immense amount of support beginning in the admissions process and lasting until they are in the career of their dreams!” - Bruce Batky, School Director of Skill Distillery “Military Friendly® is committed to transparency and providing consistent data-driven standards in our designation process. This creates a competitive atmosphere that encourages schools to consistently evolve and invest in their programs. Schools who achieve designation show true commitment and dedication in their efforts. Our standards assist schools by providing a benchmark that promotes positive educational outcomes, resources, and support services that better the educational landscape and provide opportunity for the Military Community.” - Kayla Lopez, National Director of Military Partnerships, Military Friendly®
