InfidelitySupportGroup.com states that their website is 100% Anonymous! They boast that, "Your privacy and confidentiality is the most important thing to us! You may have a cheating wife or a cheating husband. Or you may be the cheater and are looking for help. We understand the difficult situation you are in. We understand how difficult it is to share your situation about infidelity with family and friends. We assure your privacy within our infidelity support group. Rest assured, as a member of InfidelitySupportGroup.com, your privacy is our #1 priority!"

“Julie” an anonymous member who was caught cheating on her husband wrote, “I was a cheating wife, and got caught. I made a mistake! I did not know where to turn and did not think I could find a place willing to help me until I found this website (infidelitysupportgroup.com). It has been very comforting communicating directly with others who relate with me. Through encouragement from the infidelity support group I connected to Mental Health Therapists through the website and I am finally understanding myself better and am discovering the answers that I have been looking for. My marriage, I believe will survive! Thank you!”

This Infidelity Support Group is anonymous and completely FREE to use. It is not only FREE for cheating wives and cheating husbands, but also for the majority of the members who were cheated on.

“Paul” another anonymous member said “A friend recommended I try this site after I caught my wife cheating. The support from other members on the website was great! I made a few friends on the support group and after a few months I realized I needed to end my marriage. I found Divorce & Family Lawyers, in my area who specializes in infidelity, directly on the website and I am so thankful for their compassionate and expert advice. I cannot believe this website was free to use. Your infidelity support group was there for me and changed my life for the better. Thanks!”

InfidelitySupportGroup.com has been in service for 10 years and has become the number one infidelity support group online.
