Murrow will paint a special COLORME canvas for Paint for a Cure. She will help those people attending the sold-out event to 'find the artist within'.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, March 16, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phoenix, AZ, USA, March 16th, 2021 - COLORME Art Spa founder and artist Debra Murrow will paint a special COLORME canvas on Friday, March 19 for the Paint for a Cure fundraising event for Hues for Hope. She will help those people attending the sold-out event to 'find the artist within', as they all help paint the special COLORME canvas that will eventually furnish the walls of the home to be built for ALS patients.

The event is being hosted by Eric and Jen Weinbrenner, who are passionate about ALS because Eric got diagnosed with the disease Nov 27th, 2019. They created Paint for a Cure with a mission to help cure the financial burden that ALS imposes on families. Paint For A Cure is committed to providing medically accessible housing and monetary support to those who cannot afford the necessities, and help offset the expenses of ALS. The event is sold out, but donations are always accepted to be able to help more and more people with ALS.

Debra Murrow is also showcasing at the AZ Online Wedding Show, Sunday March 21, 2021. It's a fun, FREE, informative and unique wedding planning experience, featuring some of the highest ranked and professional wedding vendors in Arizona! Tickets are free - and the show is virtual, seen from the comforts of your own home. See how to get an amazing fine art piece for your new home!
