in quality industrial and laboratory furniture and a registered small business manufacturer of small business furniture, is celebrating its 44-year anniversary. Founded in 1977, RDM Industrial Products manufactures and provides a wide variety of furniture for the Advanced Technology, Biotechnology, Electronics, and Healthcare industries as well as many other private and commercial industries.

"Height-Adjustable Laboratory Tables are one of our Specialties at RDM Industrial Products. We offer lift tables for laboratories in a wide variety of styles and include the key features, materials, and characteristics that will serve your unique needs," said owner Victor Gomez.

RDM Industrial Products offers a variety of standard and custom adjustable height tables with a variety of lift mechanisms including manual hand crank tables, electric lift tables, and heavy duty lift tables with hydraulic lift systems. Adjustable height tables have a multitude of uses such as equipment stands, microscope tables, multi-shift tables allowing multiple people of varying heights to share a work surface, and ADA handicapped accessible tables. RDM has over 40 years of experience helping create the perfect adjustable height table for any specification.

RDM Industrial Products also offers an impressive line of durable, high-grade, high-quality laboratory tables, ensuring long-term usability that can withstand heavy-duty use. Each lab table undergoes a rigid manufacturing process and only uses the highest quality materials for construction. With a choice of wood frame or fully welded steel frame connections, there is a table to suit every application.

“We take pride in the expertise and experience involved in the manufacturing of all our lab furniture. Our goal is to provide clients with quality, efficiency, and safety. You can rest assured that we will continue to provide the tradition of excellence that we have become known for," said a spokesperson for the company.
