

Taste of the Okanagan Partners with Mamas for Mamas for Mamas to “Spread” the love with new Rosé Wine Jelly

Taste of the Okanagan has joined with National charitable organization Mamas for Mamas to ignite taste buds & to ignite change with a delicious Rosé Wine Jelly.

KELOWNA, BC, CANADA, March 17, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- A new 2021 motto has emerged: “Poverty relief because that’s our jam.” Mother daughter run business Taste of the Okanagan has joined with National charitable organization Mamas for Mamas to not only ignite taste buds, but also to ignite change through a delicious (and beautifully pink) Rosé Wine Jelly with Pink Peppercorns.

Kelly Hale, Owner of Taste of the Okanagan, tells us $1.00 from each sale of the Rosé Wine Jelly will be donated to Mamas for Mamas, who in turn will use the funds to support individuals and families facing poverty related struggles throughout the community.

Made with BC VQA Rosé Wine, Taste of the Okanagan once again highlights the richness of local bounty. Supporting local has been at the heart of Taste of the Okanagan since their creation in 1995, using Okanagan grown fruit and vegetables, as well as beer, wine and spirits.

This is not the first act of giving back to their community for the female run Taste of the Okanagan, they also offer guided fundraising campaigns for schools and teams, not only contributing their products, but also guidance and material for ensured success.

The message is clear with this latest launch: business can include giving back, and be delicious while doing so. Find the Jelly online at www.tasteoftheokanagan.com.
