The Apollo loyalty program has three levels: Platinum, Gold and Silver. Loyalty program levels are determined based on cumulative purchases from the previous quarter beginning with the first quarter of 2021. Customers automatically qualify for the loyalty program and do not need to sign up. Eligibility is determined each quarter and discounts and rewards apply to all purchases in the following quarter.

Each loyalty level comes with free ground shipping and escalating discounts on Apollo’s most popular products. Discounts earned are based on the loyalty level achieved and all levels provide for valuable one on one virtual consultations and training discounts. In addition, the Company will be offering payment terms to customers eligible for the loyalty program on orders over $5,000.

“We are pleased to introduce these exciting loyalty programs to our valued customers” said Dennis Stoutenburgh, President, Apollo Med Innovations, Inc. “These programs were designed to reward those customers who have helped us grow and provide additional support to help our customers grow their practices.”
