

The Savings Bank Basics of Cyber Security Hygiene Webinar Airs on YouTube and tsbawake24.com

WAKEFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, March 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Those who were unable to participate in the Basics of Cyber Security Hygiene webinar hosted by The Savings Bank back on February 11th will have an opportunity to view the event in its entirety on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/7htGHy5Zsos>, and on The Savings Bank website, www.tsbawake24.com.

Conducted by The Savings Bank's Information Support Specialist Michael Rodriguez, the Basics of Cyber Security Hygiene webinar covered ways that internet users can stay safe while conducting business and learning online. Discussions included basic password hygiene, including the use of multi-factor authentication, backing up important data, and understanding networks, i.e.: the safety of using free public Wi-Fi, checking website URLs for accuracy, anti-malware/anti-virus software, and social engineering attacks.

The cybersecurity webinar is the first in a series of free informational webinars sponsored by The Saving Bank for its customers and community residents throughout the year 2021, that will focus on diverse and timely topics, including first-time home buying and small business strategies in a post-COVID-19 world, among others. The next webinar will feature a 2011 Economic and Stock Market Outlook presentation, conducted by Brendan Szocik, First Financial Trust President and CEO, on March 25th.
