

The Courtney's Corner Brand Marks 100th "Lunch On Me" Giveaway During An Initiative to Celebrate Women's Progress

Courtney's Corner LLC commits to providing weekly free lunches to women in expansion of its "Lunch On Me" weekly initiative.

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, March 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As the global COVID-19 pandemic has significantly demonstrated the strength of women and single mothers around the world who are leading the response as doctors, nurses, scientists, engineers, farmers, public servants, volunteers and in many other essential roles. Unfortunately, the financial strain due to massive layoffs and company shutdowns that have resulted from the pandemic has had a disproportionate impact on women.

In response, Courtney's Corner LLC is continuing to help communities and celebrate the women who have helped to create and sustain them through its expansion of "Lunch On Me" adding an extension to celebrate women; "Our Queens Matter" through his partnership with coach Catherine J- Emmanuel. Four incredible women have been pre-selected to be given a free lunch and pampering through the CEO himself, Courtney Starks.

"Due to an overwhelming response on our last "Lunch On Me", we are excited to bring it back this March but with a twist. March is Women's History Month and we are honored to present Lunch On Me: Our Queens Matter."
